

The national do-not-call laws are a joke. The wisconsin laws are even weak in my opinion, and yet still dramatically more advanced than the federal version. Please let our state continue to enforce our owns laws, as long as they are at least as strict as the federal versions.